

CLIMAX REACHED IN CHADWICK CASE

Woman is Placed Under Arrest
Charged With Aiding a Bank
Official in an Embezzlement.

WEPT BITTERLY, NEARLY FAINTED

An Attempt Will be Made to Prove That Mrs. Chadwick is the Notorious Mrs. Devere.

New York, Dec. 7.—Mrs. Cassie L. Chadwick was placed under arrest at 6:35 o'clock tonight by United States Marshal Henkle and Chief Flynn of the secret service. The arrest was made at the instigation of the federal officials of Cleveland, and the warrant was issued by Asst. Dist. Atty. Baldwin. The charge is "aiding and abetting a bank official in an embezzlement."

The arrest was made by Chief Flynn. When the maid opened the door in answer to the summons by the officers, Mr. Flynn asked for Mrs. Chadwick and was taken to her. He served the warrant on her and informed her that she was under arrest. Mrs. Chadwick wept bitterly and nearly fainted. The maid wept bitterly, also, but when she saw that her mistress was likely to swoon, she calmed herself and rendered assistance to Mrs. Chadwick. The son said nothing. The charge against Mrs. Chadwick is "aiding and abetting a bank official in embezzling $35,000."

United States Marshal Henkle announced after the arrest that in view of Mrs. Chadwick's condition she would be kept in the hotel tonight under the surveillance of his deputies. Tomorrow she will be given a hearing before United States Commissioner Shields.

George Hyatt, a lawyer representing Mr. Newton from the arrest, one of Mrs. Chadwick's creditors, called to see her soon after the arrest. He whispered with her for a moment, and then left the room.

Soon after the arrest and before it was known whether Mrs. Chadwick would be taken from the hotel at once or not, the hotel management sent to Mrs. Chadwick a bill for the rooms up to today. She paid it and the bill was returned to her.

R. J. Whitney, who is a director of the Citizens' National bank of Oberlin, O., called and asked to see the prisoner, but permission was denied him.

Andrew Squire, who came here from Cleveland with Ira Reynolds, secretary of the Wade Park Banking company, had a half hour's conversation with Mrs. Chadwick. At the conclusion of the conference, Squire said: "The arrest of Mrs. Chadwick does not in any way affect the holding we have of her securities, and it does not change the legal proceedings necessary in the further evolution of the case."

Mr. Squire further said that he did not know the present whereabouts of Mr. Reynolds, who is said to have in his possession the $5,000,000 in securities belonging to Mrs. Chadwick.

The deputy marshals and secret service men who were in Mrs. Chadwick's room said that the name of Andrew Carnegie was used in the conversation and that the sound of the name came each time Mrs. Chadwick smiled.

Phillip Carpenter, one of Mrs. Chadwick's counsel, had a two hours' conference with her after her arrest. Mr. Carpenter said he would represent Mrs. Chadwick tomorrow at the proceeding before United States Commissioner Shields. If she is able to give bail she will remain at her present quarters; if not, she will have to go to jail. At present he would oppose any suggestion of her going back to Ohio.

"Mrs. Chadwick has not, to my knowledge, had any communication with Mr. Carnegie, nor has he had any communication with her today. I refuse to say anything about the Carnegie note, as this is an Ohio matter and has not come to my knowledge. Mrs. Chadwick will make no statement to the public. She is hearing up admirably under the strain and will appear to answer the charges against her."

Mr. Carpenter declared emphatically that Mr. Powers was not the lawyer referred to by President Beckwith as having represented Mrs. Chadwick in Oberlin and Cleveland in vouching for the signature, "Andrew Carnegie," on the notes.

IS SHE MRS. DEVERE?

Cleveland, O., Dec. 7.—When told of the arrest of Mrs. Chadwick in New York, United States Dist. Atty. Sullivan said: "Mrs. Chadwick's arrest has been under contemplation for the last week. I am not sure as to the witnesses I will summon. I can only name one of them at present. This person will be Irving Bedford, clerk of the United States court for the Northern district of Ohio, who in Toledo defended Joseph Lamb, who was arrested with Madame Devere for forging $40,000 worth of notes. Lamb being acquitted on the ground that he was held in the woman's power and did not knowingly commit a crime."

"Mr. Bedford will be asked to identify Mrs. Chadwick as Madame Devere, which he declares he can do. The notes signed with the name of Andrew Carnegie will enter into the case. As to whether forgery can be proven, I am not now prepared to state."

The witnesses who will attempt to prove that Mrs. Chadwick and Madame Devere are the same person, for whom summonses have been issued, are Dr. H. W. Kitchen, a banker of Cleveland; Charles Brown, superintendent of the Pacific Express company at Chicago, who was employed by that company in Toledo when Madame Devere was tried for forgery in 1895, and a Toledo banker, whose name is not given out. Warden Gould of the Ohio penitentiary will be asked to furnish the guards who were in the employ of the state at the time of Madame Devere's imprisonment.

SUMMONS FOR WITNESSES.

Cleveland, O., Dec. 7.—Application was made today in the United States district court for the summoning of Cassie L. Chadwick, Ira Reynolds and Emil Hoover, the son of Mrs. Chadwick, for purposes of examination in bankruptcy proceedings.

The petition was filed by Nathan Looser, receiver for the Chadwick estate. The petition recites that although reasonable efforts have been made, the receiver has thus far been unable to secure possession of the property of Mrs. Chadwick, although he is informed that the persons named in the petition have in their possession securities, jewelry and other property of great value belonging to Mrs. Chadwick, and which should be in the hands of the petitioner.

Prosecutor Keeler of this county and Prosecutor Stroup of Loraine county had a conference today regarding action taken in relation to the forged notes which were held by Mrs. Cassie L. Chadwick and which were the cause of the wrecking of the Oberlin Citizens' National bank. It was decided to take up the matter in Loraine county. President Beckwith and Cashier Spear have been subpoenaed to testify before the special grand jury, which will meet tomorrow at Eliza.

County Prosecutor Keeler has sent the following telegram to Andrew Carnegie in New York:

"Did you ever sign your name to notes for $250,000, for $500,000, and for $1,000,000, all dated New York, Jan. 7, 1904? Did you ever sign any of these notes? Will you be willing to come to Ohio, if necessary, to testify that you did not? Please wire reply as soon as possible, as grand jury action hangs on your attitude."

Up to midnight no reply had been received by Mr. Keeler. The prosecutor said that Mrs. Carnegie's answer will be presented to the grand jury.

BOUGHT JEWELRY ON CREDIT.

New York, Dec. 7.—It was learned today that Mrs. Chadwick obtained $110,000 worth of jewelry on credit from Thomas Kirkpatrick, a jeweler of this city, last winter, and that the firm has made efforts for several months to get this jewelry or its money equivalent back.

Mrs. Chadwick paid a part of the debt recently, it is said, and her obligation now amounts to about $5,000.

Robert Kirkpatrick, the credit man of the firm, verified the report that this money was still due from Mrs. Chadwick today. He said the firm's lawyers had been in Cleveland and recovered some of the jewelry.

A THIRD SQUADRON.

Russia Decides to Dispatch it to The Far East.

London, Dec. 7.—According to a St. Petersburg dispatch to the Daily Mail, the emperor on Wednesday decreed the dispatch to the far east of a third squadron, comprising the battleships Paul I and Slava, which will be completed as speedily as possible; five older battleships, five cruisers and 40 torpedo boats. The whole squadron, the dispatch adds, it is hoped will be fitted out in two months. Probably it will be commanded by either Vice-Admiral Dnubassoff or Vice-Admiral Choukhin. It is further asserted that no decision has been reached regarding the Black sea fleet.

AFGHAN TROOPS.

Amerc Now Has 80,000 at Kabul Alone.

London, Dec. 7.—The steady concentration of Afghan troops at Kabul for some time past is estimated now to be fully 80,000, double the former garrison, with enormous numbers of Afghans and three, six and nine-pound guns. Although the amer is said to regard the district of Herat as the most likely point for a Russian attack, he appears to be so distrustful of his forces in the outlying garrisons that no modern guns have been sent either to Herat, elsewhere outside Kabul. The defenses of Herat are also reported to be badly out of repair, although there is a large garrison there.

German Ship a Lawful Prize.

Berlin, Dec. 7.—A dispatch from Tokio to the Lokal Anzeiger reports that a prize court at Sasebo has declared the German ship veteran, which was captured near Port Arthur, a lawful prize. The officers and crew of the veteran have been released.

PUBLIC LAND FRAUDS.

The Government Will Prosecute
Every Guilty Person.

Washington, Dec. 7.—An official statement was given out by the interior department today announcing the government's purpose to prosecute every guilty man in the public land frauds to the full extent of the law and regardless of position in life. The statement follows:

"The conviction in Portland, Or., yesterday of five persons for land frauds, which will be followed next week by the trial of several others indicted for the same offense, is but another step toward the consummation of the policy entered upon by the secretary of the interior when it became known nearly three years ago that frauds were being perpetrated in connection with the public lands, to run down and prosecute the guilty ones to the full extent of the law, without regard to their position in life."

"The department has encountered many obstacles while engaged in this work, but has moved steadily onward and has had the hearty assistance and co-operation of the department of justice in bringing the land criminals to justice."

"These frauds have been more far-reaching than the country has suspected, and the task of unearthing them and securing the necessary proofs has been a difficult one, but there has been no abatement of the intention to overcome all difficulties and secure the conviction of the land thieves. No one will be shielded, whether high or low, and the work of prosecution will be vigorously carried on."

NO DIRECT LEGISLATIVE BODY.

Has Signified to Prince Mirsky His Approval of a Number of the Principles Laid Down.

St. Petersburg, Dec. 7.—The council of the empire and the council of ministers, by the emperor's direction, are considering the memorial sent by the council of zemstvoists, which was recently held here. It can be said authoritatively that the emperor has shown intense interest in the questions raised, and while it is impossible that the idea of a direct legislative body can be entertained, he has, nevertheless, signified to Minister of the Interior Prince Sviatopolk-Mirsky his approval of a number of the principles laid down in the memorial and is now awaiting the recommendations of the two councils.

Prince Sviatopolk-Mirsky is being fairly bombarded with petitions in support of the action of the zemstvoists and memorials from other associations throughout Russia in favor of a more liberal administration.

In the meantime the revolutionary organizations have promulgated their idea of a constitution which has been circulated by tens of thousands throughout Russia. It is composed of 42 articles and is modeled partly upon the American and partly upon the British systems. Supreme authority is vested in the emperor and a congress of two houses, called the imperial duma. The upper house, or landhouse, is to consist of representatives elected by provincial zemstvos and dumas of the larger cities, one representative for every 50,000 of population, and the lower or town house to consist of representatives elected by secret ballot from districts having 200,000 population, by municipal suffrage, except persons in the military, naval or police service, or disqualified by crime.

The proposed constitution provides for responsible ministers to sit under the presidency of the imperial chancellor, all subject to impeachment. The empire is to be divided for self-government movements into districts or communities, called zemstvos. The administration of law is incumbent upon judges, who may not be removed except by court sentence.

A supreme court is provided to safeguard and interpret the constitution. Finland is held to be autonomous except as to foreign relations. The imperial authority is vested in the reigning house, but on the accession of each new emperor he must take an oath to defend the constitution. The emperor will be granted a monarch, but the prerogatives of the imperial duma are carefully hedged. The emperor may prorogue the imperial duma, but elections must occur within four months and the body must be reconvened within six months. Imperial grants will be fixed at the beginning of each reign by duma.

The document includes a bill of rights, among other things, making all Russians equal before the law, irrespective of race or religion; guarantees of person liberty; exemption from arbitrary arrest; freedom of movement, of domicile and of travel, except abroad to avoid military service.

ZEMSTVOS TO HAVE VOICE.

St. Petersburg, Dec. 7.—A commission is sitting at the ministry of finance considering the coming increase in taxation. It is proposed that the zemstvos shall have a voice in the assessment and a share in the disbursement.

Republican Governor of R. I.

Providence, R. I., Dec. 7.—The state returning board has completed its recount of the ballots cast in the recent election for state officers. For governor, George H. Riter (Republican) received a plurality of 56 over Gov. L. P. C. Garvin (Democrat), in a total vote of 75,460. The rest of the Republican state ticket was elected by large pluralities.

Dennison May be Extradited.

Lincoln, Neb., Dec. 7.—The supreme court today ruled that Thomas Dennison of Omaha is subject to extradition to Iowa to stand trial on the charge of complicity with Frank Shercliff in the Bollock diamond robbery.

Rhodes Scholarships.

Washington, Dec. 7.—Commissioner of Education Harris today received a cablegram from London, announcing that the examinations in each of the states and territories in this country for the Rhodes scholarships at the Oxford university in England will be held on Jan. 17 and 18. There will be one scholarship for each state and territory, under the will of the late Cecil Rhodes.

Japanese Barred from Citizenship

Seattle, Wash., Dec. 7.—In the federal court today Judge Hanford signed a memorandum decision denying admission to citizenship to a Japanese named Tally Kimura. The latter appeared in person in court with two reputable witnesses and made all necessary affidavits concerning his term of residence and educational and moral qualifications, but the court, while admitting all these things, declared that he could not become a citizen because he was an Asiatic and not white.

DENVER ELECTION OFFICIALS

Judge Sanborn Refuses to Take Jurisdiction in Their Cases.

Denver, Colo., Dec. 7.—Atty. R. F. Richardson of this city received word late today that Judge Sanborn, sitting in the United States court of appeals in St. Louis, had refused to assume jurisdiction in the case of Doan et al. Denver election officials, who have been sentenced to the county jail for contempt of the supreme court of this state, Doan and the others were charged with disregarding the orders of the supreme court concerning the conduct of the recent election and were fined and sentenced to jail.

Application was made to the United States court to intervene on the ground that the supreme court was without jurisdiction to appoint watchers to supervise elections in Denver. The case was set for hearing in St. Louis Dec. 10, but Judge Sanborn today decided not to assume jurisdiction.

Thought of appealing to the United States supreme court in behalf of the convicted Democrats has been abandoned, it is said, because of the fact that the cases could not be reached on the docket of that court in less than two years' time.

By that time, it is explained, the men sought to be relieved will have served their sentences and regained their freedom and any relief the supreme court might be able to give would be unavailing.

The defense introduced witnesses today in the election cases now being heard by United States Commissioner Capron.

The trend of the testimony was that legal voters were not interfered with, but that already a large number of persons who insisted on voting, but had not the right to do so, were elected from the polling place where the election officials on trial served.

The witnesses also said that other persons who complained of being kept out of the room were party workers who had no right inside the 100-foot limit.

The defendants themselves will take the stand tomorrow.

Anglo-French Colonial Treaty.

Paris, Dec. 7.—The senate today discussed the Anglo-French colonial treaty, and several of the orators criticized the abandonment of the French shore of Newfoundland. The treaty was approved by a vote of 252 to 37. The Franco-Siam convention was ratified without division.

Havana, Dec. 7.—President Palma, members of the cabinet and congressmen observed the anniversary today of the death of Gen. Maceo and the son of Gen. Gomez, by attending exercises at the museum erected to their memory.

MORE EXPLANATIONS ABOUT WORLD'S FAIR AWARDS.

St. Louis, Dec. 7.—Dr. Theodore Leowald, commissioner general from Germany, and vice-president of the jury of awards, has taken issue with the contention of the national committee of final jurisdiction in the matter of awards made by that jury. Dr. Leowald said: "I fully share the sentiments expressed by President Francis of the exposition."

Dr. Leowald says: "In the act of Congress it is stated expressly that the exposition shall be international in character, and the rules and regulations state explicitly that the jury shall be international. In accordance with this the representatives of foreign nations have been members of the group jury, the department jury, the superior jury and the committee of five."

"It would, therefore, be irreconcilable with the international character of the exposition, were a corporation, be it the national committee or the exposition company, which are not international corporations, in any way to interfere with the distribution of the awards."

"There is no doubt that the imperial government of Germany would have permitted Germany's participation in the exposition had there been the slightest possibility that the findings of the international jury could be changed by any corporation that was not an international one."

"As the committee of five has definitely determined all of the German awards, I have already had the list published in the official journal of the German government."

"I have participated in the meetings of the jury from the first day. The number of Germany's representatives was 72. Among them were men who are the most prominent and ablest experts in their respective fields of knowledge, and a number of them had already served as jurors at former international expositions."

"They informed me of one accord, and I have already previously taken occasion to voice their remarks, that the fullest cooperation was due the work of the jury at this exposition. The same was said of the integrity, impartiality, expertness, earnestness and devotion to duty shown by the jurors in all the various instances."

"The awards gained in St. Louis are not in the slightest way inferior to those gained at any other exposition."

A FACT PROVEN.

Should Convince Even the Most Skeptical of Its Truth.

If there is the slightest doubt in the minds of any that Dandruff germs do not exist, their belief is compelled by the fact that a rabbit inoculated with the germs became bald in six weeks' time.

It must be apparent to any person therefore that the only prevention of baldness is the destruction of the germ—which act is successfully accomplished in one hundred per cent. of cases by the application of Newbro's Herpicide. Dandruff is caused by the same germ which causes baldness and can be prevented with the same remedy—Newbro's Herpicide.

ALL WRONG.

The Mistake is Made by Many Salt Lake City Citizens.

Don't mistake the cause of backache. To be cured you must know the cause.

It is wrong to imagine relief is cure. Backache is kidney ache. You must cure the kidneys.

A Salt Lake City resident tells you how this can be done.

Edgar S. Hoagley, retired, of 4 Goddard Court, says:

"Anyone who has kidney complaint can easily tell it for pain across the back and through the kidneys is so marked that it cannot be mistaken. For twenty years or more I had backache some of the attacks being so acute that I required assistance to get out of bed. I stood or do anything which brought a strain on the muscles of the back when the attacks were at their height was utterly impossible, and when trouble with the kidney secretions set in life to me was not a bed of roses. When I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at the J. H. Hill Drug Co.'s store I had been suffering intensely for a week. My surprise was much more easily imagined than expressed when a few doses brought relief and a continuation of the treatment stopped a very violent attack."

President D. R. Francis of the world's fair issued the following statement, when informed of the substance of former Senator Carter's comments on his statement relative to the letter of Maj. Pangborn:

"The national commission was never formally notified, it is true, to appear before the committee of five. It was, however, repeatedly invited verbally by both Judge Boyle and myself to submit to the committee of the superior jury any charges of irregularities or evidences of frauds in the making of awards by the jury that they might be in possession of."

"These verbal invitations were not intended as summonses, for not only did we invite them to produce for investigation such cases as they might have knowledge of, but they were also asked to come and sit with the committee of the superior jury in its deliberations."
